Synergos, AMC Chief Executive Officer Steps Down

FORT COLLINS, COLO. (November 11, 2016) — Synergos, AMC announced today that Mark Koepsell has stepped down from his role as Chief Executive Officer, effective immediately. Mark has managed the day-to-day operations of Synergos, AMC since the company's inception in June 2012.

"Over the past four years, Mark has led the growth of our company from its infancy to where it stands today with 13 clients and 19 professional staff members," said Synergos board chair Rick Barnes. "The Board of Directors is thankful for Mark's tireless efforts and dedication in building the company."

"It has been a privilege to serve as the Synergos CEO for the past 4.5 years," said Koepsell. "I am proud of the work that has been done. What was simply a dream 5 years ago has become an important piece in the organizational effectiveness of so many organizations. I am confident the company will continue to enhance the professional capacity of its clients."

Ryan O'Rourke, who has been a member of our staff team since the company's inception, will lead the company in the interim.

Please know the services and programs we provide to our clients will not change, nor will they be impacted during the transition. The Synergos Board of Directors remain committed to providing you the high level of service you have come to expect from our company.

For inquiries, please contact Ryan O'Rourke at 970-797-4360 or ryan@synergosamc.com.
